

Civil Service Bureau Seeks 2500 Prohibition Agents in Country

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The United States Civil Service Commission today launched a country-wide campaign to recruit eligibles for the 2500 positions in the bureau of prohibition which were classified under the civil service by the act of March 3, 1927. The commission announced open competitive examinations for the following positions: One chief of field division at $5000 a year, five prohibition zone supervisors at $5200 a year, 24 prohibition administrators at $4000 to $6000 a year, 24 assistant prohibition administrators (enforcement work) at $3800 to $5200 a year, 24 assistant prohibition administrators (permissive work) at $3300 to $5200 a year, 50 deputy prohibition administrators at $3000 to $4600 a year, two field office inspectors at $3800 to $3900 a year, four associate field office inspectors at $3000 to $3500 a year, 18 senior prohibition investigators at $3500 a year, 109 prohibition investigators at $3000 a year, 53 junior prohibition investigators at $2400 a year, 228 prohibition agents at $2400 a year, 1260 junior prohibition agents at $1850 a year, 102 warehouse watchmen at $1110 to $1300 a year, 74 attorneys at $2350 to $5200 a year.

All of the examinations will include ratings on training and experience, a searching oral test, and a rigid character investigation made by the Civil Service Commission with the assistance of other government agencies.

In order to give the oral tests it will be necessary for the commission to send investigators to interview applicants in various parts of the country. The character investigations will be made with the most painstaking care. Because of these two features of the examinations the testing of applicants for the 2500 newly classified positions under the bureau of prohibition is one of the largest single tasks ever undertaken by the commission.

Take Fingerprints

Fingerprints will be made of all applicants who attain eligible ratings. These will be used to check the accuracy of the applicants' statements as to arrest, indictment or conviction for crime or misdemeanor. The Civil Service Commission feels that any person who is worthy of appointment to a position under the bureau of prohibition will not object to the most searching investigation into his past life.

The act bringing these positions into the competitive classified service provides that those now employed who were not appointed in accordance with the civil service law must compete with others in examinations if they wish to have an opportunity to retain their position.

Copies of the examination announcements and application blanks may be obtained from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., or from the secretary of the local board of civil service examiners at the postoffice in this or any other city. The examination announcements give detailed information regarding the scope of the examinations and the requirements for entrance thereto.

The Civil Service Commission states that the examinations will be practical, each kind specially designed to test the qualifications and fitness of the applicants to perform the particular branch of the work for which that kind of examination is held.

Written Mental Tests

The examinations for investigators below the senior grade, those for agents of all grades, and those for warehouse watchmen will require the assembling of competitors in examination rooms, for written mental tests. These will be given in approximately 600 cities throughout the country. The other examinations listed do not include written mental tests in examination rooms.

Ramona Will Be Played Three Weekends in April and May

HEMET.—Garnet Holme, director of the fifth annual outdoor play "Ramona," has announced that Victor Kolberg, noted star of the legitimate stage, will play the role of Alessandro in the production this year. Dorise Schukow, the Ramona of the play for four years, will again carry the feminine lead. Miss Schukow and Kolberg will be supported by an approximately 600 cast of whom have had previous experience in the outdoor drama.

The play will be given three weekends this year—Saturday and Sunday, April 23 and 24; Saturday and Sunday, April 30 and May 1; and Saturday and Sunday, May 7 and 8.

In four years the Ramona play has grown in popularity from an attendance of 3000 the first season to 25,000 in the four days of its 1926 run.

The play is produced as a non-profit enterprise by the people of Hemet and San Jacinto, and its purpose is to preserve the history and romance of Ramona's country. It was in the Hemet-San Jacinto Valley that Ramona and Alessandro actually lived and died. Their graves at the Cahulla Indian reservation, south of Hemet, are visited by hundreds of people every year.

The play follows closely the novel by Helen Hunt Jackson, and is probably America's most spectacular outdoor production. A great concrete theatre has been built in the hills just outside the city of Hemet, and here the people sit in comfort and enjoy the fragrance with which the springtime has filled the air while the fast-moving drama of love and sacrifice and primitive emotions is enacted before them.

So gripping is the story of the play that hundreds of people throughout California have seen it every year that it has been given. Interest in the production this year is greater than ever, and every mail is bringing in floods of applications for seat reservations to the office of the Hemet-San Jacinto Chamber of Commerce.

ONE CENT SALE!

WHAT A REXALL ONE CENT SALE IS

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price, then another item of the same kind for one cent. As an illustration: The standard price of Klenzo Dental Creme is 50c, you buy a tube at this price and by paying 1 cent more, or 51 cents, you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as is sold every day at the regular price.

This sale was developed by the United Drug Company as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full size package of high standard merchandise for 1 cent. It costs money to get new customers, but the sacrifice in profit is justified, knowing the goods will please you.
